

Kaylah Stubbs

Notice Me

I have no privacy!
Even if I have my own room,
People keep finding me.

I'm trying to isolate myself
But somebody has to say
"Where is Kaylah?"

What do you need me for?
All you gonna do is Call my name and use me.

There's more than one person in the house, but you keep calling me.

Y'all is wearing my name out,
sometimes I want to change it.

You call my name so much,
even if you start your sentence with a letter "K", I jump up & say, "yes ma'am".

Even when I'm sick
I still do what you told me to do.

I suck it up, but I don't get no praise.
I'm still being called lazy.
I'm acting like a mother to your child.
I spent my vacation cooking dinner,
even when the kitchen was empty

But I am still called lazy,
I am still told that I eat up everything.

I always wonder why she's your favorite out of 4
when she is not considerate of your feelings or only cares about herself.

I will probably never know,

but I did learned from an educator that "favoritism" is a sin.

So, I don't care!
I will still honor you,
respect you,
I will still be considerate of your feelings

Until one day, you will notice me, really.

Until one day, you'll learn my different talents, notice how I respect you.

Just notice me.
I've been invisible for way too long by others
but I can't let you unsee me, too.

At the end, I will still love you.
